"Sometimes a wine will find a groove within you; something about it will speak to you"

Ernest Ifkovitz; PortoVino's Palate

February Focus

Vallarom, Trentino Marzemino 2013

Vallarom is one of a handful of small grower/producers in Trentino; most conferring their grapes to the large co-ops. But, things are changing and the area is becoming more like Alto Adige. We know of no other producer in Trentino using native yeasts and working so naturally as Filippo. He takes Marzemino to another level. Though Don Giovanni drinks Marzemino before being swallowed up into the underworld in Mozart's opera, this Alpine wine will seduce you into drinking it despite its history. Violets; a little structured with a delicious tart aftertaste that hints of almonds. This is one of those light reds to chill down just a little. Filippo picks at perfect timing, at the cusp of juiciness, to give delicious wines with natural acidity. As many growers let their Marzemino hang for maximum sugar, they must acidify! Yes, they do it outside of California. Vallarom is also certified organic by the ICEA.
